Memories? What memories? Hopefully if they are that imiportant to me, I'll remember them on my own. Instead, a legible message: To all those I have known at NHS, thank you for four hard but fulfilling years. I've changed tremendously from the shy freshman I used to be and you influenced me more than I sometimes like to admit. To the kindred spirits I met here, you are wonderful, amazing people. I love you and I'll never forget you. To my family, my endless thanks for all the love and support you've given me throughout my life. I love you! Finally, as to the future . . . "sometimes i ask to sneak a closer look skip to the final chapter of the book and maybe steer us clear of some of the pain it took to get us where we are this far but the question drowns in its futility even i have got to laugh at me cause no one gets to miss the storm of what will be just holding on for the ride."

Why? Why does this woman push? Push herself to her last ounce of stamina. Push, day after day. Why does she train? She captures strength and passion. Yet with one small gesture . . . the tilt of her head, she becomes the portrait of effortless grace. All this dedication. All her determination. Why does this woman push? Because this woman is a dancer. And, a dancer is all she ever wanted to be.

William Ward once said, "If you can imagine it, you can achieve it, if you can dream it, you can become it." As we prepare to go in search of our own dreams, we can not forget all of the memories of the past. Over the last eighteen years our memories have expanded far beyond the walls of NHS. We have made it through these times of stress and triumph together, but now it is time for each of us to follow our own separate path. We hope that this yearbook will enable everyone to reflect upon all of the memorable times that we have experienced together. We would like to thank Mrs. Dunn and all of the students who have contributed to this yearbook. We wish the members of the class of 1996 unlimited success and happiness in all of your future endeavors.

Good luck and Enjoy Yourself ~

Dreams Of

THE YEAR IS 2016, AND THE MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1996 FROM NORWELL HIGH SCHOOL ARE SCATTERED THROUGHOUT THE UNITED STATES AND BEYOND . . . . . .

Many of the graduates of the class of 1996 were brought back together through the opening of the new art gallery located on Espiritu Boulevard. The gallery, designed by architect Dan Keillher and built by contractors Erik Anderson, Mike Bols-Connell, and Joe Toomey was able to open successfully thanks to the financial backing of heiress Meredith Brown and a loan put together by bankers Carolyn Dunbar and Kelly Putnam. The gallery would house the artwork of up and coming artists Kristen Conway, Adam Bailey and Jeff Campbell. The opening was attended by all of the townspeople including computer analyst Chris Wilson and DARE officer Jared Bunker. Just as the guests awaited a speech by mayor Andrew Cook, over a dinner prepared by caterers Christina McLarnon and Lisa Rosati, the building was suddenly shaken by a bomb set by P.J. Rossetti and Ryan Lindsay.

Reacting quickly to the alarms set off by the explosion were firefighters Dave Regan and Jared Simpson, as well as police chief Rich Burgio. Although the rescue teams led by EMT's K.C. Flannery and Elizabeth Hillman were able to rescue most of the guests, they were unable to get to the body of super model Lisa Fabrizio. Distraught by the death of his client, talent agent Matt Jacobs sought to hire famed prosecution attorney Tim O'Neill for his law suit against the gallery. Unfortunately, the attorney was already working for Rachel Mangum, owner of the local Walt Disney Store, who was suing Abercrombie and Fitch owner Erin Guiney for displaying her own line of Disney wear on models Allison Foley, Jamie Kean and Nancy Bergman. However, that trial was halted by the revelation of gossip columnist Keith Armstrong that the judge Andrew Clarke had been spotted with the defense attorney Lisa Sammartino the previous day at Mike Seery's House of Waffles. Along with an environmental commentary written by Green Peace activist Rebecca Atkinson on the ozone depletion caused by bikers Steve Desario and Jon Sheehan, reporter Maureen O'Malley covered the other injuries caused by the bombing. Athletic trainer Goetch Stone and professional baseball player Mike Forrest were rushed to Stevens and Rice Medical Center where they were treated for burn wounds by doctors Katie Suic and Rick Kenney. Although the victims would heal successfully, they were referred to psychologists Katie Cowden and Meg Scott for post traumatic stress counseling.

The government page of the newspaper also covered the bombing ordeal with Washington correspondent Holly Dunlap reporting from the pentagon, where senator Kelly O'Connor had enlisted the help of FBI agents Mike Murray and Mike Ware to investigate the case. The agents quickly contacted bomb squad specialist Justin Morse who was doing research on ancient African tribes in Zimbabwe. Upon receiving his assignment, the specialist immediately informed U.N. Ambassador John Scopelleti of his impending return to the U.S.. While returning on a jet piloted by Mike Lane, the specialist chatted with Soap Diva Jean McNamara and her script writer Meghan O'Keefe, over his in flight beverage served by stewardess Sonia Sheehan. Although some turbulence was experienced, the jet was able to land safely thanks to the efforts of air traffic controller Pete Venti.

The Future

Also affected by the bombing was the local high school which was shut down by the orders of principal Leigh Fitzgerald. Afraid of the detrimental effects that this could have on the students, school psychologist Adrienne Rosa advised teachers Lisa Chesarone, Pete Veneto and Sarah Cornwell to take their students on a field trip to a performance in the park featuring the music of Jill Meyer and Greg Weeks, dancing by Danielle Thompson, and a poetry reading by Anne Farmer. However, the attention of the students was diverted from the performance to the other end of the park where Monty Python impersonators Brian Moses, Jason Reis, John Wilson and Steve Toth were taping a live performance to be shown on Marisa Ridge's "Would You Rather Hour?". That evening the variety hour would also showcase a joust match between American Gladiators Amy Martin and Kristin Alvarenga and sugar eating contests between Christine Logrippo, Heather Moloney-Roche, and Hope Goodine.

Back at the school, athletic director Bill Lynch had to inform soccer coaches Ross Frankenfield and Sara Hurley that their teams would not be able to practice that day due to the damage that the fields had sustained. Luckily, he had already hired lawn and garden specialists Josh Aigen and Tim Messenger to repair the fields. However, the workers could not get started without the help of backhoe driver Jon Petty who was at home watching a talk show hosted by Katie Mahoney. That day, guests Alex Reardon and Joe Norris were discussing their inability to date women their own age. The two men were scolded by angry audience members Meghan Douglas and Katy Holway and later counseled by relationship therapists Stacey Morris and Jamie Perry. The therapists also endorsed their new book, published by the McCann Company, in which they described how they resurrected the potentially destructive relationships of both Topher Hughes and Heather Monahan. The book was selling like crazy, especially in the book store owned by entrepreneur Dave Vasconcellos, which was visited one Tuesday by environmental scientist Kate Slocum who was headed to Montana to investigate the biological decay which had been destroying farmer Frank Knudsen's wheat crops. Upon purchasing the latest issue of Ocean, a scientific journal that featured an article on the new environmentally safe motorized surf board invented by Matt Lazcano, the scientist boarded a bus and headed west.

Also leaving the immediate area were fast food moguls Christina Johnson and Jess Petrillo who were traveling to the arctic where they hoped to market their new line of burrito burgers. Unfortunately their luck turned sour when Todd Twigg, the captain of their boat decided that rather than sailing to the arctic as planned, it might be nice to sail to Tibet where he hoped to found a new religion based upon the tenets of procrastination. Thus, he dropped off his less than enthusiastic passengers on an ecological animal reserve run by zoologists Caroline St. Ours and Karen Shiers. After helping the women fight off a tribe of anarchist misogynist carnivores led by Jon Vondette, he set sail for the east. In his travels the sailor saw only two other human life forms, Chris Turner who had long since abandoned his home town and was living on a large rock in the south Atlantic, and Joe Brennan who alone inhabited a small island in the Caspian sea from where he manufactured and shipped bomb parts back to the United States.

SPRING

THE STUFF DREAMS ARE MADE OF . . .

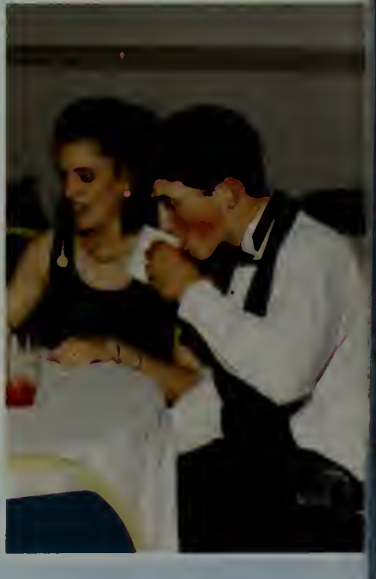

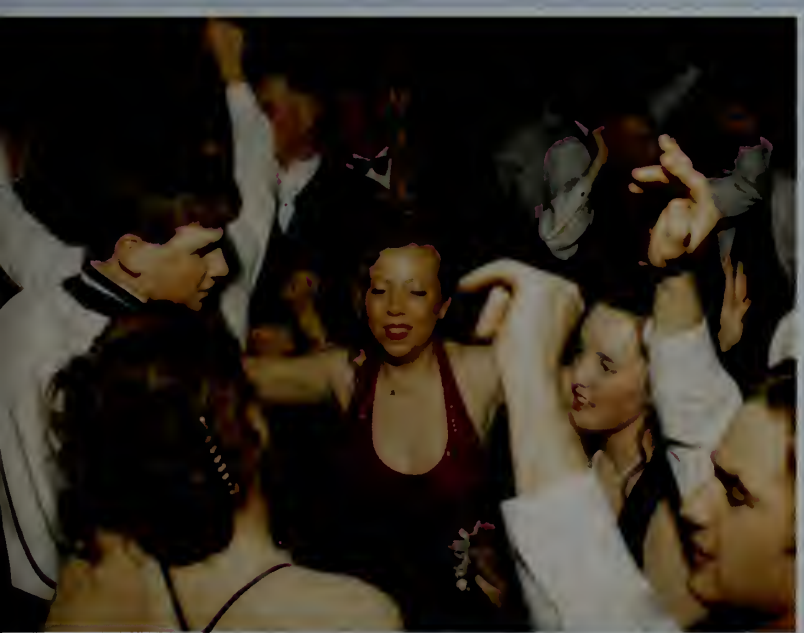

One of the most popular events each spring, the 1995 prom was yet another success. Held at Ritter Country Club in Whitman, the evening was filled with fine dining, dancing and fun for everyone. The prom festivities climaxed with the announcement of the prom court consisting of Meg Scott and Sara Hurley and the 1995 King and Queen, Jeff Marchesiani and Nancy Bergman. This beautiful evening was a night to remember for all who attended.

BITS OF DREAMS AND PIECES OF FANTASY

The efforts and talents of the Norwell High School Drama Club culminated in the May 1995 production of "Bits and Pieces", their last performance of the year. This was similar to last year's "Bits and Pieces", in that it was comprised of several, separate scenes of various musicals and plays, such as The Music Man and Fiddler on the Roof. Due to the exorbitant skill of the cast, and the almost divine guidance of the Drama Club Advisor/Director Pamela Wolfe, "Bits and Pieces" proved to be a smashing success, as were all Drama Club productions.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY INDUCTION

THE CANDLE-LIGHTING

Stimulating Conversation

The fifth day of May marked a new beginning for twenty-one NHS students as they joined the country's elite as members of the prestigious National Honor Society. "The cream of the crop", as they were referred to by advisor Anne Rosenberg, heeded the advice of current members, as well as hearing stirring speeches concerning the impact which they have upon the community by Principal Bruce Marshman and Superintendent Donald Beaudette. The evening was capped off with an address given by incumbent president Sriram Krishnan, rendering his thoughts upon their deserving entrance and how their character and leadership would play a role in their future success.

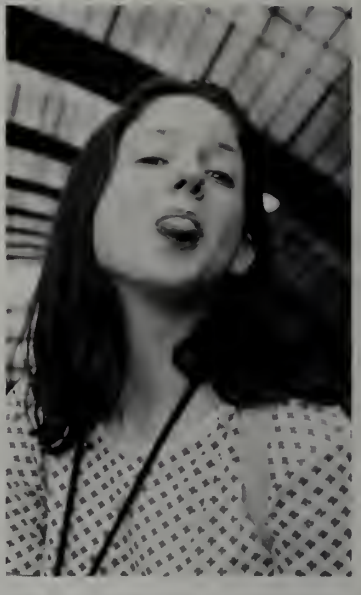

FRANCE

The trip to France was one filled with great memories: Montmartre, Vince, boring museum tours, "Chip", the winery, CHA bags, Steu, Mr. and Mrs. Chubs, Orleans, the disco, arrested in the metro?, baguettes, Vincent's nail, baggage strike, chateaux, crepes, awake for 32 hours. Thanks to Mrs. Doyle, Mrs. Rosenberg and Mr. Dargis for a great experience.

Thanks to Mrs. Dunn, Mr. D, Mrs. Atkinson, Mary and Andy,

DIVERSITY WEEK

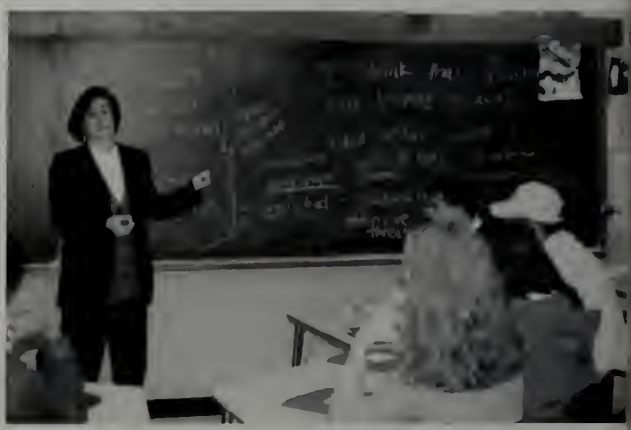

Although Norwell may not be blessed with diversity, for a week this past year, Norwell High School experienced a bit of life outside this sheltered town. Ranging from Metco students and Cape Verdeans to a Holocaust survivor, everyone learned not only about different cultures and lifestyles, but also about themselves, and the many similarities which we hold with each other. The Junior/Senior Health Fair also opened many students' eyes to their own problems as well as how to avoid others. The highlight of the day occurred when the Pen Players took center stage with their controversial interactive play.

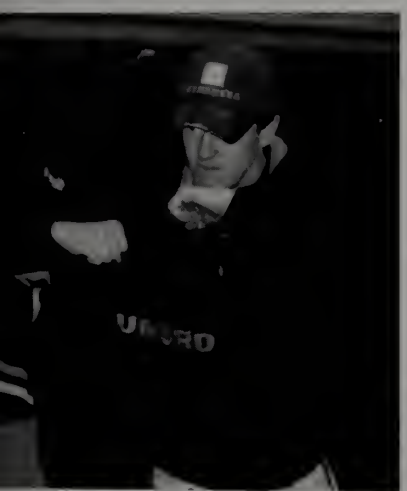

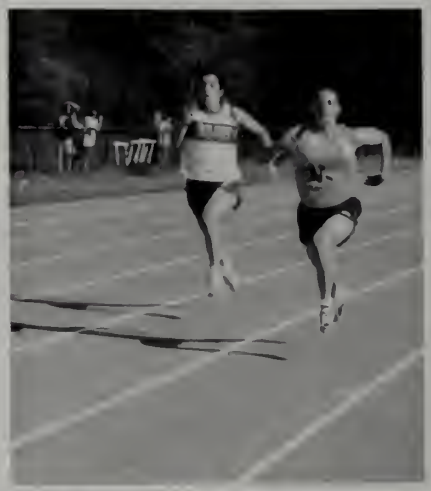

GIRLS' TRACK

The Girls' Track team had an other successful season, placing third in the State Meet. The team was led by senior captains Jen Martin, Alyssa Stewart, and Emily Ennis. Top runners for the team were Lisa Sammartino Stacey Morris, and Sara Hurley After a streak of 114 consecu tive victories, the Girls' Track Team lost a close meet to arch rival Scituate, coming down to the last event to decide the win ner. Like true winners the team remained tough and finished the rest of the season without a loss. The girls will once again be strong next year, looking to seek revenge against Scituate.

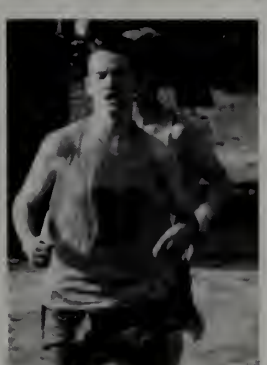

GIRLS' TENNIS

Back Row: C. Wieden, M. Peterson, K. Waldron, J. Butler, Coach Flaherty, D. McLaughlin, B. Lane, K. Goodwin, Front Row: M. Spearin, M. Brown, B. Sharkin, K. Litchfield, M. Conway

This years girls tennis team did an excellent job, as league competition was at its highest in many years. Led by captains, Jen Butler, Kim Waldron, and Danielle Mclaughlin, the team finished with a very strong record. Jen Butler was elected to the all star team in singles, while Danielle Mclaughlin and upcoming hopeful Michelle Peterson, were also elected in doubles. The team has its work cut out for it next year as only one senior will be returning. However this young team dominated by a strong nucleus of underclassmen will definitely be in the hunt for a league title next year.

BOYS' TENNIS

The boy's tennis team certainly proved many speculators wrong this year by compiling a 14-2 overall record and becoming South Shore league champions for the first time in over ten years. Led by captains Sriram Krishnan and Ross Frankenfield, the team showed its heart by winning five out of six matches by a very close 3-2 margin. Singles players Dana Isola and Ross Frankenfield along with the first doubles team of Brendan O'Donnell and Eric Kelley were elected to the league all-star team. Other notables on the team were undefeated singles player Chris Truesdell, and the second doubles team of Todd Twigg and Alex Waldron who lost only one match. Losing only two seniors, next year's captains Ross Frankenfield and Alex Reardon will try to lead this young team to another league championship.

SOFTBALL

Top: Coach Gerety, Lynsey Fitzgerald, Amy Barao, Meg Barao, Rachel Mangum, Jen Neves, Katie Laubinger, Bottom: Holly Dunlap, Sonia Sheehan, Caryn Stevens, Jill McCoy, Annette Dinatale.

Once again, led by the pitching of all-star Jill McCoy, the softball team had a winning season. They made the State Tournament but lost in the first round to Ashland. With only two seniors, underclassman were challenged to step up. That's exactly what they did with the batting of all-star Amy Barao, the pitching of Meg Barao, the speed of Katie Laubinger, the diving theatrics of Jen Neves, the bookkeeping of Lynsey Fitzgerald, the dependability of Rachel Mangum, the versatility of Caryn Stevens, the acrobatics of Sonia Sheehan, and the dedication of Holly Dunlap. With all starters returning this team is looking forward to another great season at N.H.S.

The Baseball team had another successful season under head coach Al Kassatly. The team had an overall record of 12-10, losing to Archbishop Williams in a heartbreaker in the second round of the tournament. The team was led by senior captain Ray Marsden, South Shore League All-Stars Pete Veneto and Steve Toth, and Patriot Ledger All-Scholastic Mike Forrest. The team is losing only one starter next year, and will certainly be in contention for the League Title.

This year a lacrosse team was started here at NHS. The team had its ups and downs. It was coached by Mr. Williams who is the backbone of Norwell Lacrosse. Tim O'Neill showed expert goal tending ability while Jon Petty lead the defense. Randy Holmes and Kevin Dawyskiba contributed a lot to the team also. They had to travel long distances to their games but it did not matter. They had to raise their own funds and did so by having a lacrosse sponsered dance. The dedication shown by these guys indicates a promising future for lacrosse at NHS.

HOMECOMING

This year, the homecoming court was led b
Freshman Sarah Holmes and Mark Mahoney
Sophomores Elizabeth Weber and Chri
Truesdell, Juniors Michelle Peterson and D.
Cook and Seniors Sarah Cornwell, Bill Lynch
Katie Sulc, Ross Frankenfield, Megha
O'Keefe and Michael Murray. As the success ful dance progressed, Bill Lynch and Kati
Sulc were crowned King and Queen of th spectacular Homecoming event.

SPIRIT WEEK

Once again, the Norwell High School students proved that they are sold on the Blue and Gold. Whether sporting their pajamas, dressing as a television character, or appearing in their Blue and Gold threads, the NHS community was filled with excitement throughout this week before Homecoming. Culminating with an impressive 14-0 thrashing of Scituate, the excitement spilled over into the gym, where the annual homecoming dance showcased its television theme. With each class' tarpaulin proudly displaying their respective network, a very entertaining mood capped off a successful week.

THE JUNIOR CRUISE

As it always has been, the Junior/Senior Cruise of 1994 was a great success for the members of both classes. Departing from Hingham Harbor upon a luxurious cruise ship, this Friday night carousal would not be concluded until eleven o'clock. Dancing and drinking (soft drinks) throughout the dark and clear autumn night, many a student enjoyed this ethereal, almost dream-like celebratory event.

POWDER PUFF

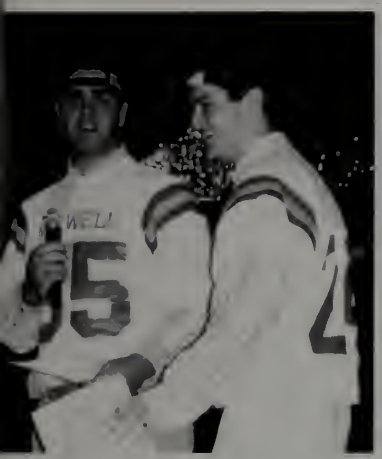

The 1995 Powder Puff game was filled with action packed plays, expert coaching, and outstanding sportsmanship, therefore it is no wonder that the annual event drew the largest crowd of the entire fall sports season. The seniors came out rearing to go, especially after a week of intense practice, dinners, and a pep rally skit. Both teams were disgruntled by the lack of football jerseys; however they were driven into action by the support and excitement of the crowd. Although the play of the seniors was met with some objection by the fine staff of powder puff referees, they still considered themselves victorious at the end of the game.

THE PEP RALLY

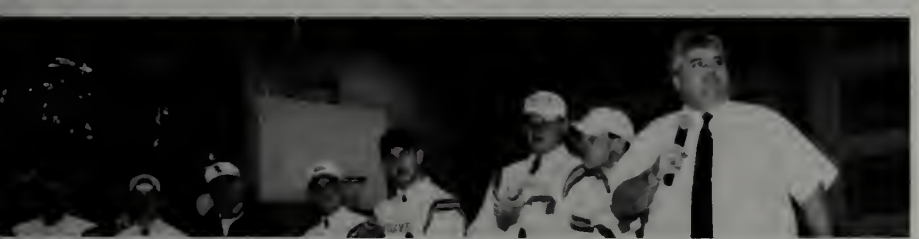

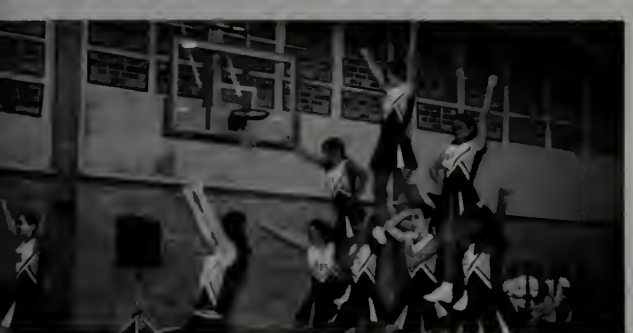

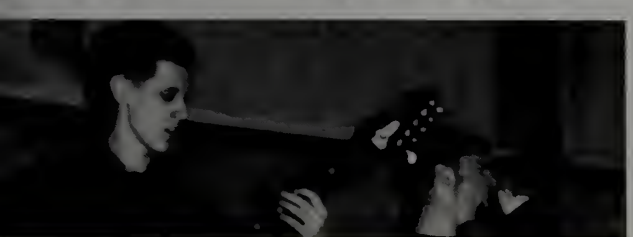

This year's Thanksgiving festivities began with the successful production of the Norwell Pep Rally. Unfortunately, the Clippers had a disappointing end to their season with a loss to the Hanover Indians on Thanksgiving Day.

The football team completed another very successful season this year compiling a 4-5-1 record in a very competitive South Shore league. One of the Clipper's more memorable wins came when they defeated the very strong Scituate football team 14-0. Although the Clippers will be losing many crucial starters next year, they will also have key players Matt Lewis and quarterback Brian Doherty returning.

The Fall Cheerleading squad for the 1995 season was one of the best group of cheerleaders around. The relatively young squad was led by three junior captains who will be returning next year to lead the cheers. With a variety of dances and acrobatic tricks, the cheerleaders did a great job rooting on their team and exciting the crowd, rain or shine, at every football game.

BOYS' SOCCER

The soccer team completed another very successful season, finishing with only one loss to the league champions Hanover. For the fourth straight year the Clippers have earned second place in the South Shore League, and with a young starting lineup returning next year led by captains Alex Waldron and Dave Goodhue, the Clippers hope to win the league title. This years all-stars were Bill Lynch, Matt Sheehan, Matt Jacobs, Brian York, and Dave Goodhue.

GIRLS' SOCCER

Back: Marisa Ridge, Sara Hurley, Coach Emerson, Erin Guiney, Sara Cornwell Middle: Kate Dorney, Amanda Laban, Meg Barao, Jen Neves, Karen Spitz, Sue Sabadini, Amy Barao, Front: Suzanne McLaughlin, Kate Thornton, Briana Rinchiuso, Valerie Campbell, Kristin Collins, Lynsey Fitzgerald

This year's girls' soccer team had a very successful season led by team captains Sara Hurley and Marisa Ridge. They lost many key players last year, but have been able to rise to the occasion with some new, young talent, making this year most exciting. The Clippers are only three points away from qualifying from the state tournament and hope to finish their season with a strong record.

BOYS' CROSS COUNTRY

The Boys' Cross Country Team completed another tough season, finishing with a record of 2-4. The team was led by senior captain Dan Kelliher who lost only one race all season. Chris MacNeil also finished the season strong, along with seniors Dave Regan, Alex Reardon, and first year runner Rick Kenney. Losing four seniors and one of the top runners in the league, the team will be led by mostly freshman next year, but with the leadership of Coach Martin the team should have another successful season.

GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY

This year has been another successful one for the Norwell girls cross country team, led by senior captain Lisa Sammartino who has done well in both dual meets and in sectional meets. Stacy Morris and Rebecca Atkinson, also senior captains, have run well for Norwell, always being among the first to emerge from the woods. Underclass support to this sport is growing and if the efforts of these dedicated individuals keeps up, there is success in their future.

FIELD HOCKEY

This year field hockey had a great season. Lead by senior captains Caryn Stevens and Caroline St. Ours, the team missed a berth in the state tournament by one point. It came down to the last game of the season and they needed a win. They had a grueling match against Duxbury that ended in a 2-2 tie. Other seniors include K.C. Flannery, Amy Martin, Karen Shiers, Meg Scott, and Alicia Rice who were all contributors to the teams success. Juniors Amy Kavanaugh and Jill McCoy represented the team on the All-Star team.

WINTER

THE GLOBAL BEAT

The tradition continued for this student favorite, as the Globe Santa concert once again claimed the spotlight, signaling the beginning of Winter vacation. Marred only by this season's characteristic inclement weather, five school rock bands took the stage, performing their twenty-five minute sets. From metal to punk, our talented students showed their determination and versatility to their fellow classmates who braved the blustery conditions to fill the auditorium. The student government sponsored event was once again a success, as the organization was able to donate the proceeds to a very worthwhile charity.

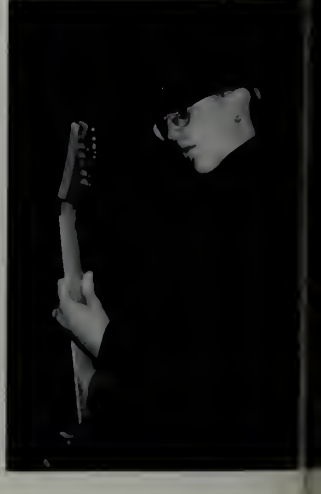

CHRISTMAS WEEK

RENT A SENIOR DAY

Most students will experience only one leap year during their stay at NHS, therefore, when February 29th rolled around this year, the senior class officers and the student government decided to make it a day to remember by holding the first "Rent A Senior Day" in NHS history. The day was a booming success as the entire student body was entertained by both the costumes and often times acrobatic actions of the seniors as well as the creativity of the underclassmen. The boundaries of the imaginations of the underclassman were seemingly endless as they dressed the seniors in everything from tutu's to hula skirts and had them performing such stunts as stop-drop-and roll down the spine and walking on their hands while barking like a dog. Hopefully the underclassman will not have to wait until 2000 to experience another hilarious day such as this one.

MOCK TRIAL

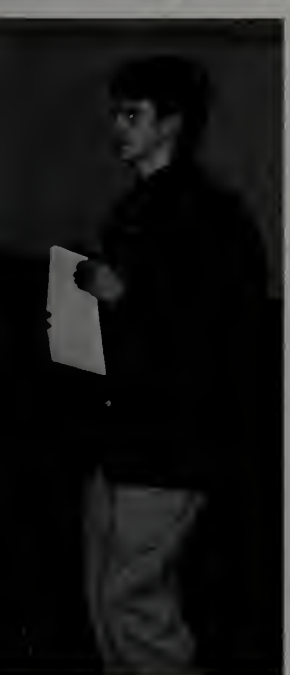

This year's Mock Trial case is a negligence suit against a High School for sexual harassment towards a student. Working very hard on the case for the defense are Seniors Brian Moses, Jason Reis, and John Scopelleti and Juniors Dave Donovan, Dick Freed, Annie Kittler, and Chris MacNeil. The Plaintiff in the case consists of Seniors Meredith Brown, Katie Crowden, KC Flannery, Rick Kenney, and Steve Toth as well as Juniors Tiffany Anderson, Holly Aprea, and Barry Neely. Once again, the team would like to extend to Mr. Farrow their thanks for his immense help in preparing for the competition.

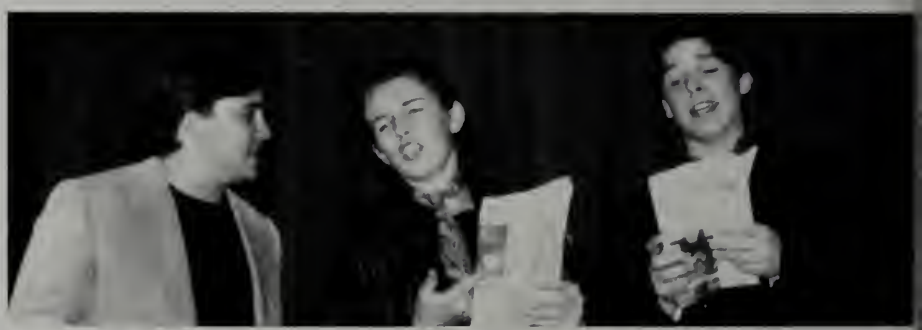

Norwell High students shine in every area of the arts - art, drama and music. Recent events have included a festival play, "Welcome to the Moon", which has gone on to compete in the finals; painted stools, Tshirts and drawings which have decorated the spine; band concerts, talent shows and artistic endeavors which have enriched the whole school. As in years past, in 1995-96, Norwell High School has celebrated the arts!

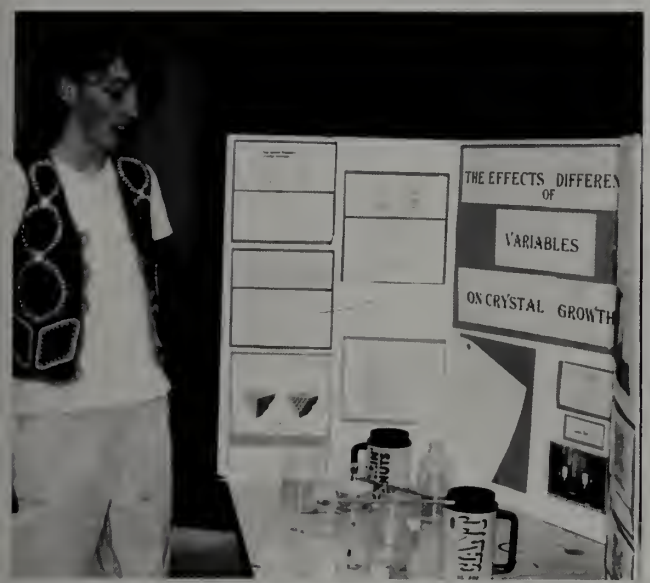

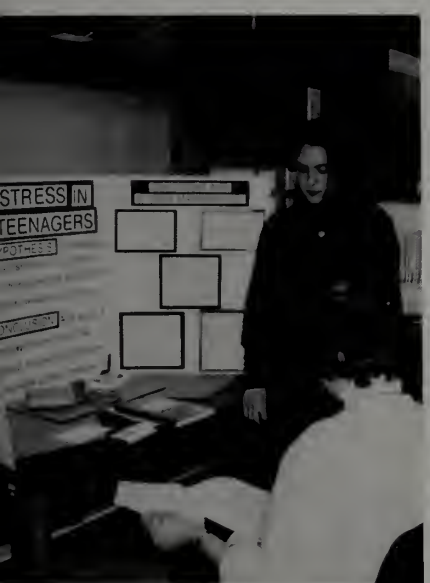

SCIENCE FAIR '96

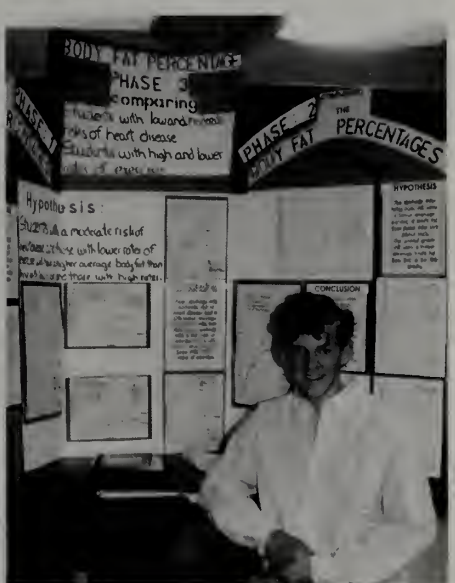

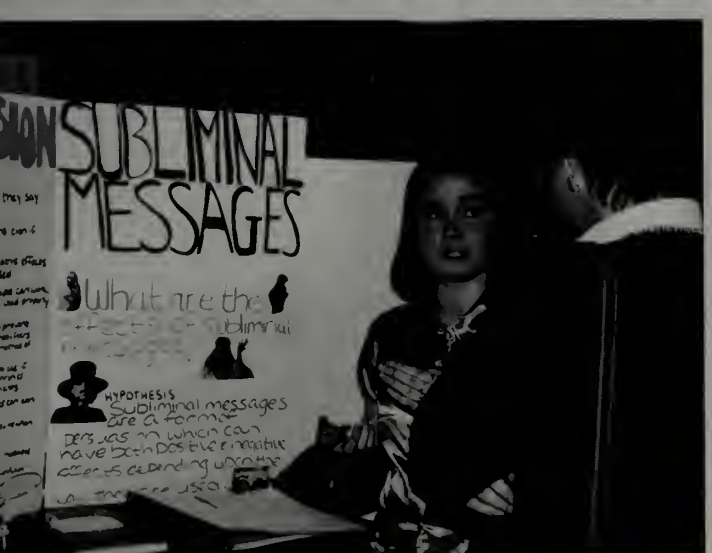

The Science Fair this year was held on the day of a late snowstorm, which caused many judges to cancel, so teachers volunteered to take their places. The awards assembly was held in school the next week, and Jason Reis took first place with a project entitled "Hands, Eyes and the Brain. Phase IV: Information Coordination."

VARIETY SHOW '96

The 1996 Variety Show, hosted by Jason Reis and Katy Slocum, featured talented NHS students performing in many different acts, such as singing, dancin, Monty Python skits and rock bands. Especially notable performers included singers Liz Trozzi, Emilee Dennis, Brad Larsen and Dan Kelliher, dancer Jen Hasham and comedians Brian Moses and John Wilson, along with many other talented students.

DREAMS OF DRAMA

The Norwell High School Drama Club, otherwise known as the Fourth Wall Players, once again performed excellently in the production of Jigsaw '96 a musical compilation of various musical bits and dramatic pieces. With excerpts from such classics as Twelve Angry Men, The Crucible, and Little Women, the performers of NHS, under the benign and sanguine directorship of Pamela Wolfe, transmutated the High School auditorium into a great PLACE for even greater entertainment, on the nights of January the twentieth and the twenty-Sixth.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The boys' basketball team completed another successful season under the leadership of senior captain Bill Lynch. Although the team struggled in the beginning of the season, the Clippers came on strong, winding up the season with big wins over Norton and East Bridgewater. Next season looks very promising for the Clippers as center Matt Lewis and several other strong underclassmen will be returning.

BASKETBALL

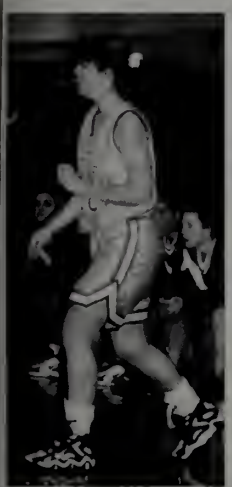

Our favorite quotes: "Catch the ball", "If this was karate you'd be dead", "Which one's the break", "Foul shots win championships", "When I went to the Garden . . .", "I like the sprite in you".

Wild thing songs: Wild G, why am I not on Varsity?, you make everything-"The Clipper Ship has left the dock". Wild Pat, on the bench you never sat, you make everything-Diet Sprite.

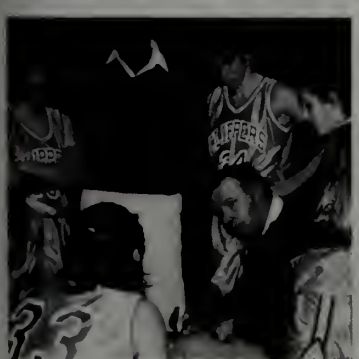

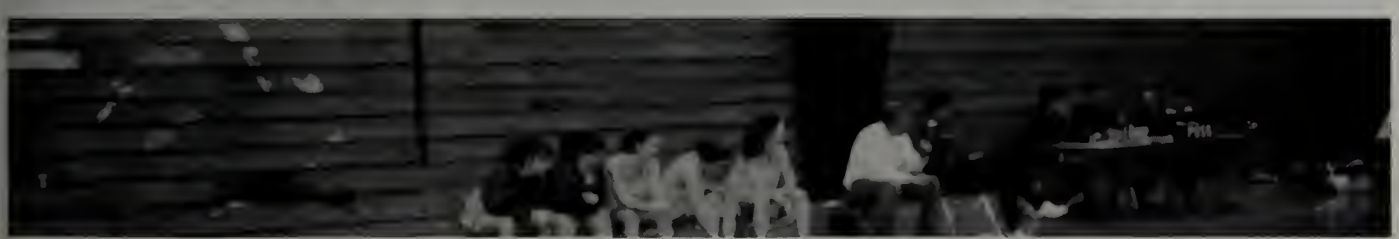

Once again the NHS Girls basketball team dominated the league. Captains Amy Martin and Kelly O'Connor stepped up to play big roles both on and off the court. Juniors Meg Barao and Kaitlin Cox took control down low while Jill McCoy held them on defense and Amy Barao dazzled us with her shooting ability. The solo sophomore Lynsey Fitzgerald ran the show playing the point. And keeping the bench warm with happy smiles was Rachel Mangum and her bench buddy Briana (freshman) Rinchiuso. We seniors would like to leave a few memories with our team: Wild Thing songs, polyester unis, JV, the Moo game with Mrs. Cox, Norman, Deublo, JV, Kate Murphy Moments, Frog jump in Abington, bench sit, clipper dumb nights, the Kassat, chick sit, JV, Kelly O fouling out 2 times in 1 day, The Ming, Julie Christie, JV, BEEF, team shoes, Jill's leg, 3 time All-Star Manager Leigh Fitzgerald. Remember to have fun next year.

BOYS' WINTER TRACK

This year's boys' track team gave a strong effort towards the league title under first year coach Darryl Wooten. Coach Wooten has been a great addition to the team and led them through a hard-fought season. The team was led by senior captains, Dan Kelliher and Dave Regan. Along with the strong efforts of Matt Thornton, Chad Hunt and freshman Brian Morris, the Clippers worked to be one of the strongest teams in the league.

GIRLS' TRACK

The girls' winter track, led by captains Stacey Morris, Rebecca Atkinson, Sara Hurley, and Lisa Sammartino completed yet another successful season, finishing with a very strong record. Stacey Morris and Lisa Sammartino boast some of Norwell's fastest times in track, and were very influential in the teams success. Rebecca Atkinson was also a key long distance runner while Sara Hurley was very competitive in the hurdles and the high jump. Next year's team should continue to be successful as many talented underclassmen will be returning.

JV/FRESHMAN

This year the NHS Gymnastics team was successful with the help of Jill Joy, led by Captains Meredith Brown, Sue Sabadini, and Kerri Loughlin. Meredith was a master of the beam and was the only senior on the team. Sue placed in the All League Meet all-around, while Dayna Mazzola placed in the vault and bars. Freshman Sarah Burwick had an outstanding season also. All the freshman gave a lot of support. They also had three die-hard fans Ethan Ceplikas, Mark Mahoney, Liam Toomey. Overall the season was productive and all the members had a growing experience.

HOCKEY

This years' hockey team achieved great success by finishing with a strong record. They have continued to improve ever since they began as a club a few years ago. However, now as a varsity team, led by seniors, Mike Murray, Jon Petty, Tim Messinger, Mike Bois-Connell, and Keith Armstrong, the hockey team is looking for big things in the future. Other talented underclassmen include junior Dave Goodhue and South Shore League scoring leader, Mark Angeloni.

The young Norwell wrestling team finished a tough season at 4-9 this year. The team was led by senior captains Joe Norris and Erik Anderson. They finished among the top wrestlers at the annual Cohasset tournament along with Kevin Dawyskiba, Matt Jacobs and Alex Waldron. The team was hurt by injuries early in the season, but managed to bounce back and receive outstanding performances from key people. One of the highlights of the season was a great upset against Middleboro. The team improved a great deal from the beginning of the season, and under the reign of Coach Sullivan, the team hopes to be one of the league leaders next season.

The class of 1996 would like to express their appreciation to Ms. Dunn, who has so selflessly dedicated her time year after year to producing a yearbook of the utmost quality for the past nine years. As a token of our gratitude for Ms. Dunn's immense contributions, we, the editors of the 1996 yearbook, dedicate this yearbook in her honor. We wish Ms. Dunn the best of luck in all of her future endeavors.
